CARL H. LINDNER

Chief Executive Officer

Carl H. Lindner has been an owner of the Reds since 1981. Recognized as one of Cincinnati's eminent philanthropists, he, in an 11th hour effort along with other civic-minded partners, purchased control of the Reds in 1999 and kept the sport's oldest franchise from being sold to out-of-town ownership.

Mr. Lindner loves the team and the community and believes that the Reds are an important and historical asset that contributes to the city's quality of life. "It was fun to build a new ballpark that has brought renewed enthusiasm to the Cincinnati Riverfront," said Mr. Lindner. The Reds Hall of Fame that opened in 2004 is also receiving rave reviews.

With additional signings for 2005, the Reds have taken a major step toward reaching their goal of becoming World Champions. "Mrs. Lindner (Edyth) and I are anxious to continue the Reds postseason success from years past and bring a sixth World Series Championship to Cincinnati. We are especially excited about the upcoming season."

Mr. Lindner loves to share and entertain. In 2004, he sent nearly 500,000 students, teachers, nurses, police and firefighters the special treat of Reds tickets from him and his family.

Mr. Lindner's family founded United Dairy Farmers in 1940 as a single storefront selling dairy products. The family's first day sales amounted to $8.28.

Today, Mr. Lindner is Chairman of the Board, Founder and principal shareholder of the $22 billion American Financial Group Inc. American Financial is a diversified financial holding company principally engaged in property, casualty and life insurance.

Mr. Lindner's support of the Greater Cincinnati area is evident throughout the community. His activities include memberships in the Commercial Club of Cincinnati, the Board of Trustees of the Cincinnati Fine Arts Institute, the Board of Overseers of the Cincinnati Symphony, and the Citizens for a Better Cincinnati.

On the national level, Mr. Lindner served on the Founding Board of Directors for the Kennedy Center and has long been a supporter of the Ford Theater.

Education has always been of special interest to Mr. and Mrs. Lindner. They are the major benefactors of Cincinnati Hills Christian Academy and the Otto Armleder Memorial Education Center, schools founded by them and their sons. The Scottish Rite operates the Carl & Edyth Lindner Learning Center. The Carl H. Lindner Hall houses the College of Business Administration at the University of Cincinnati and the Carl H. Lindner Family Physics Building is prominent on the Xavier University campus.

Mr. Lindner holds the honorary doctorate of commercial science degree from the University of Cincinnati and doctorate of humanities from Xavier University. The doctorate of humane laws degree was conferred upon him by the Moscow Theological Seminary and Northern Baptist Theological Seminary. He also received an honorary doctorate from Judson College and an honorary doctorate of humane letters degree from The Hebrew Union College.

Numerous community organizations proudly display the Lindner name, such as the Cincinnati Zoo, with the Carl H. Lindner Jr. Family Center for Reproduction of Endangered Wildlife; the Museum Center, with its Carl and Edyth Lindner Ice Age Exhibit; The Health Alliance of Cincinnati, with the Carl & Edyth Lindner Center for Clinical Cardiovascular Research Center; Sawyer Point, with its Carl Lindner Family Tennis Pavilion, and the City of Norwood, with Lindner Park.

Mr. Lindner is the recipient of many awards, both locally and nationally. The Friars Club presented him with their Centennial Award. He was inducted into the Junior Achievement National Business Hall of Fame and, in cooperation with the Cincinnati Historical Society, the Junior Achievement of Greater Cincinnati inducted him into the Greater Cincinnati Business Hall of Fame. He has received the Great Living Cincinnati award and was presented the Distinguished Service Citation by the National Conference for Community and Justice. The Dan Beard Council, Boy Scouts of America presented Mr. Lindner with the 1995 Good Scout Award and the National Council of the Boy Scouts of America presented the Silver Beaver award to him. Mr. Lindner was awarded the Golden Plate Award by the American Academy of Achievement in 1978. He is the recipient of the Heritage Award by the Urban League of Greater Cincinnati and was named a Beacon of Light Humanitarian by Lighthouse Youth Services.

The Jewish National Fund presented the International Peace Award (the highest international honor and award given by the Jewish National Fund) to Mr. Lindner and he has been Man of the Year for the United Jewish Appeal.

He is presently a 33rd degree Mason and a recipient of the Van Rensselaer Medal. Only 14 people worldwide have been awarded this prestigious award. In 1998 Mr. Lindner was the recipient of the Gourgas Medal, the most distinguished honor conferred by the Supreme Council of the Scottish Rite, awarded "in recognition of notably distinguished service in the cause of Freemasonry, country or humanity." Mr. Lindner also received the Good of the Rite Award for services rendered in Inter-fraternal Masonic Relationship between Prince Hall Affiliation and the Northern Masonic Jurisdiction.

Mr. and Mrs. Lindner have three sons, who work together daily as partners in their various business interests.

JOHN L. ALLEN

Chief Operating Officer

The 2005 season marks John Allen's 16th season in professional baseball and his 11th with the Cincinnati Reds. Mr. Allen originally joined the organization in May 1995 as controller. In June 1996, he was named "interim" managing executive and was named managing executive two months later. On Oct. 1, 1999, he was named chief operating officer.

Mr. Allen is responsible for all operations of the organization, reporting directly to Carl H. Lindner, the Reds' chief executive officer. He has regularly represented the Reds at Major League Baseball ownership meetings since 1996.

John began his baseball career in 1990 as an intern with the Columbus Clippers, the Class AAA minor league affiliate of the New York Yankees while earning a master's degree in sport management at The Ohio State University. He was subsequently named the club's director of business operations, a position he held for five years.

Mr. Allen has put the focus on the playing field rather than on the Reds front office or the business side of baseball. He has been dedicated to constant improvement in scouting and player development. To that end, the Reds search for talent has expanded significantly, especially in Latin American countries, where two academies house, educate, and train young athletes. His agenda has also included such fan-friendly activities as RedsFest, the annual winter caravan, increased player contact for fans, season-ticket holder luncheons, ticket discounts, "Run the Bases" and the Fan Zone.

John was involved in all aspects of the development and construction of Great American Ball Park. This includes the sales tax issue in the fall of 1995, lease negotiations, Issue 11 for the location of the ballpark and countless hours of design and construction meetings.

Under Mr. Allen's tutelage, special efforts have been made to recognize the organization's rich history. Replicas of the retired jerseys of Fred Hutchinson and Johnny Bench were displayed for the first time in a special ceremony on Sept. 1, 1996. Since then, the organization has retired the jerseys of Joe Morgan, Frank Robinson, Ted Kluszewski and Tony Perez, and will retire Hall of Famer Sparky Anderson's number during the 2005 season. Statues of popular Crosley Era players are integral to the Crosley Terrace entrance as further dedication to the team's history. Those efforts culminated in September 2004 when the Cincinnati Reds Hall of Fame and Museum opened its doors with memorabilia dating back to the team's origin in 1869.

John was born in Norton, Kan., and graduated from Norton Community High School, where he participated in baseball, football, basketball and track. He served in Vietnam, where he was wounded in action and decorated for his efforts. Following active duty, he attended Kansas State University, where he earned his bachelor's degree. John currently serves on the Finance Advisory Board at KSU.

Mr. Allen has been honored with the Certificate of Friendship from the Cincinnati Human Relations Commission and the Community Service Award from the Talbert House. Cincinnati Magazine also has honored him in its annual "Best of Cincinnati" issue.

He is a life member of the American Legion, Veterans of Foreign Wars and Disabled American Veterans organizations. He serves on the board of directors of the Cincinnati Reds Community Fund, The Cincinnati Reds Hall of Fame and Museum, the Greater Cincinnati Convention and Visitors Bureau, the Dan Beard Council of the Boy Scouts of America, MLB Enterprises, Inc. and serves on the Kid Glove Committee. He also serves on the advisory board for the Northern Kentucky Chamber of Commerce.

John and his wife, Anna, reside in Newport, Ky. John has two children, Christopher and Sarah.

DAN O'BRIEN

General Manager

Dan O'Brien enters his second season as General Manager of the Cincinnati Reds. He was named the 16th general manager in franchise history on Oct. 27, 2003, when he signed a three-year contract that runs through the 2006 season. O'Brien is responsible for overseeing the entire baseball operations department, including player personnel, scouting, player development, and the Major League roster.

During O'Brien's first season (2004), he wasted little time restructuring the front office operation as a means to improve organizational productivity and efficiency. Under O'Brien's leadership, a long-term strategy has been implemented with an emphasis on creating a productive domestic and international player development and scouting program. He has assembled a highly qualified and respected baseball operations staff that has refocused the organization's commitment to excellence.

During this past season, the Major League club made tangible progress in improving the team performance on the field. However, during the 2004 offseason, O'Brien worked diligently to reshape the Major League roster with the addition of five pitchers and a third baseman via free agency and trade acquisitions. Ever mindful of the Reds' rich baseball heritage, O'Brien has significantly altered the makeup and personality of the team as the organization strives to redevelop a winning tradition.

O'Brien was the assistant general manager/baseball operations with the Texas Rangers for the seven seasons prior to his current position. He was involved in all areas of baseball operations, including personnel evaluations, contract negotiations, player trades and free-agent acquisitions. He supervised the Professional Scouting department and Pacific Rim operations, as well.

The Columbus native joined the Rangers in October 1996 after working 15 seasons for the Houston Astros. He joined the Astros initially as assistant director of minor leagues and scouting. Eventually he was promoted to director of scouting operations in June 1984 and was later promoted to the position of director of player development and scouting in November 1995 and oversaw one of the more productive farm systems in the game.

During O'Brien's tenure in Houston, the Astros significantly increased their international-scouting operation in Latin American countries and Australia. He had a hand in scouting and signing current Major Leaguers Bobby Abreu, Craig Biggio, Richard Hidalgo, Kenny Lofton, Wade Miller, Phil Nevin, Roy Oswalt, Billy Wagner, Freddy Garcia, Carlos Guillen, Luis Gonzalez, Johan Santana and Shane Reynolds.

In 1977, O'Brien earned a master's degree in sports administration from Ohio University, where he was an assistant baseball coach. He worked for the Seattle Mariners from 1977-81, first as assistant director of group sales, then as director of group sales and eventually as assistant director of business affairs. He joined the Astros organization in December of 1981.

The son of long-time Major League Executive Dan O'Brien Sr. began his baseball career in 1974 while working for the Rangers while attending college. In 1976 he graduated with honors from Rollins College with a double major in business and economics and earned a Rhodes Scholarship nomination. He also played baseball at Rollins.

Dan and his wife, Gail, reside in the Greater Cincinnati area.

2004 Minor League Player of the Year

RHP - Richie Gardner - Potomac/Chattanooga

Righthanded pitcher Richie Gardner was the recipient of the Sheldon "Chief" Bender Award as the Reds' top minor league player in 2004. He joins previous Minor League Player of the Year Award winners Austin Kearns (2000), Adam Dunn (2001), Brandon Larson (2002) and Stephen Smitherman (2003). The award was named after Bender beginning in 2002.

Gardner, in his first professional season, went a combined 13-5 with a 2.53 ERA and 1 save in 29 games (23 starts) between Class-A Potomac and Double-A Chattanooga. He led all Reds minor leaguers in ERA and tied for the organizational lead in wins. He also ranked third in the organization with 139 strikeouts.

Gardner was selected by the Reds in the sixth round of the 2003 First-Year Player Draft.

Louisville Bats - AAA

The Louisville Bats posted their worst record since becoming a Reds affiliate. At 67-77, the Bats finished in second place, 13.0 games behind first-place Columbus (Yankees) in the West Division of the International League. It was their first losing season since they went 71-73 in 2000.

Rick Burleson managed his first full season at Louisville and was selected to coach in the Triple-A All-Star Game. C Dane Sardinha (.262, 9hr, 40rbi) was the only player named to the squad.

3b Brandon Larson (.282, 9hr, 25rbi), the only player to appear in a Bats uniform in all five seasons, became the franchise's all-time RBI leader (227), passing Rod Brewer (221). Larson now owns the franchise records for RBI, extra-base hits (148), home runs (70) and grand slams (4).

The Bats led the International League in attendance for the fifth straight season, averaging 9,392 fans per game at Louisville Slugger Field (648,092).

2004 Season In Review

GREAT AMERICAN BALL PARK

The Reds produced 22 sellouts in the first 2 seasons of the 42,271-seat facility, including 11 sellouts each year...paid attendance was 2,355,259 in 2003 (29,077 avg) and 2,287,250 in 2004 (28,238 avg)...on the field, the Reds are 75-87 at the new ballpark (35-46 in 2003, 40-41 in 2004).

MANAGER OF THE YEAR

Dave Miley was named Baseball America's National League Manager of the Year for the first half of the season...on 9/6 the club announced it would pick up his contract option for '05 and and invited back the entire coaching staff (hitting coach Chris Chambliss, pitching coach Don Gullett, bench coach Jerry Narron, bullpen coach Tom Hume, first base coach Randy Whisler, third base coach Mark Berry, bullpen catcher Mike Stefanski)...on 10/11, Miley signed a 2-year contract extension through the 2006 season with a club option for '07.

STREAKING

The Reds have posted 4 consecutive losing records for the first time since an 11-season stretch under .500 from 1945-55...have suffered 4 consecutive losing seasons at home for the first time since a 6-season stretch from 1929-34.

TOUGH STRETCH

From 7/5-7/28 the Reds went 7-17 vs National League Central rivals StL (1-9), Mil (5-1), Chi (0-2), Pit (0-3) and Hou (1-2)...began that 24-game stretch in third place, 5.0g out of first, and finished it in fifth place, 16.5g back...the Reds did not get closer to first place than 16.5g the rest of the season.

ARCH ENEMIES

The Reds went 5-14 vs National League Central Division rival StL...lost 14g to the Cardinals for the first time since 1960 (8-14) and lost 14g vs any opponent for the first time since 1986, when they went 4-14 vs the Astros...combined to go 11-25 against NL Central playoff teams StL (5-14) and Hou (6-11).

INJURY-PLAGUED

Thirteen Reds players made 17 apps on the disabled list, including Brandon Larson 3 times and Austin Kearns and Ken Griffey Jr. twice each...Griffey and Jason Romano finished the season on the 60-day disabled list, as did Josh Hall and D.J. Mattox.

ONLY 9 OUTS

The Reds' projected Opening Day starting lineup of C Jason LaRue, 1B Sean Casey, 2B D'Angelo Jimenez, 3B Brandon Larson, SS Barry Larkin, LF Adam Dunn, CF Ken Griffey Jr. and RF Austin Kearns played together for only 9 outs, all on 4/26 at Pit...earlier that day, Larson was reinstated from the disabled list, where he spent the first 18g of the season...in the first inning of that game on 4/26, Kearns suffered a broken left forearm when he was hit by a Ryan Vogelsong pitch...Kearns played RF in the bottom of the first inning but did not return to the field for the bottom of the second...that lineup didn't play together again the rest of the season...of the projected Opening Day starting position players, only Dunn did not miss time with injury.

TERRIFIC TRIO

The last 2 seasons the Reds are 27-17 (.614) in the 44g in which LF Adam Dunn, CF Ken Griffey Jr. and RF Austin Kearns started together in the outfield, including 17-6 in 2004...this season they did not play together after 5/28 at Mil.

ALREADY LEGENDARY

On 8/10 vs LA, Adam Dunn hit the longest home run on record at Great American Ball Park, a 535-foot shot off Jose Lima that bounced over Mehring Way and onto a piece of driftwood floating in the Ohio River, which is in Kentucky...the distance was measured by one of the HOK architects who helped build the ballpark, based on the blueprints...according to baseball historian Bill Jenkinson, it was the longest home run on record since at least 1976.

GOT 'R DUNN

Adam Dunn became only the second player in Reds history to collect at least 100 runs, 100rbi and 100 walks in the same season (105r, 102rbi, 108bb)...Hall of Famer Joe Morgan accomplished the feat in 1976, his second consecutive MVP season (113r, 111rbi, 114bb)...Dunn finished the season with 46 homers, tied with StL's Albert Pujols for second in the Major Leagues behind LA's Adrian Belte (48hr)...Dunn became the eighth player in Reds history to hit 40hr and only the fourth Reds player to hit 30hr in a season prior to his 25th birthday (Gus Bell, Frank Robinson, Johnny Bench).

100 RBI

Adam Dunn (102rbi) and Sean Casey (99rbi) fell 1 Casey RBI short of becoming the first Reds duo with 100 RBI in the same season since George Foster (149rbi) and Johnny Bench (109rbi) did it in 1977...in 9g and 44 overall plate apps after his 99th RBI, on 9/24 at Pit, Casey had just 5 plate apps with RISP (0-4, 1bb).

NOT DEEP ENOUGH

Adam Dunn (102rbi, 0sf) joined Nick Esasky (108rbi in 1989) and Chili Davis (112rbi in 1993) as the only players in Major League history to produce at least 100rbi without the benefit of a sacrifice fly (Elias Sports Bureau)...in 2004, Dunn had the highest RBI total (102) of any player in the majors without a sac fly...Wily Mo Pena (66rbi, 0sf) ranked second...437 players hit sac flies in '04, including Reds pitchers Jose Acevedo (43ab) and Luke Hudson (16ab) and C Corky Miller (39ab).

LINEUP CHANGES

Reds manager Dave Miley produced 132 different lineups, third-most in the National League (SF 138, NYM 136) and eighth-most in the majors.

Ryan Freel became the first Major League player to make at least 10 starts at 5 different positions since Tony Phillips did it for the Tigers in 1991 and 1992...Freel made 51gs at 3B, 29gs in CF, 26gs in RF, 12gs in LF and 10gs at 2B.

MAJOR LEAGUE DEBUTS

None of the 44 players who appeared for the Reds in '04 made his Major League debut...in 2003, 13 Reds players made big league debuts, the club's highest total since 1944.

DAY BASEBALL

From 4/10-4/19, with the help of a rainout at Phi on 4/14, the Reds went 4-4 in 8 consecutive day games...was their longest continuous stretch of baseball under the sun since 7/7-7/16, 1962, when they played 9 straight day games (including Sunday doubleheaders on 7/8 and 7/15).

SRO AT THE FRIENDLY CONFINES

From 4/16-4/19 the Reds and Cubs split a 4-game wraparound weekend series at Wrigley Field...the paid attendance of 159,461 included sellouts all 4 days and was a Cubs home record for a 4-game series.

Retired Uniform Numbers

1 Fred Hutchinson

Born: Aug. 12, 1919 Birthplace: Seattle, WA Died: Nov. 12, 1964 Number Retired: 1965

Fred Hutchinson was a popular and successful manager of the Cincinnati Reds. Hutch's 466 managerial victories and .543 winning percentage rank him among the best managers ever to wear a Cincinnati uniform. The Reds exceeded the 90-win mark in three of his six seasons at the helm, and in 1961 they took the National League pennant.

But the joy of a first-place finish was matched only three years later by the sadness of Hutch's illness and early death. The courage, class and determination that Fred exemplified all his life were all the more evident during his battle with cancer. Hutch stepped down as Reds manager in 1964, and died that November.

The following year, Hutch's uniform (No. 1) became the first one in Cincinnati Reds history to be retired.

Today, Fred Hutchinson's legacy lives on in the world-renowned Cancer Research Center that bears his name, and in The Hutch Award. It is given annually to a Major League ballplayer who "best exemplifies the character and fighting spirit of the late Fred Hutchinson...who overcomes any form of adversity." Past winners include Ray Knight, Ron Oester, Eric Davis, Bobby Tolan, Johnny Bench and Sean Casey.

5 Johnny Bench

Born: Dec. 7, 1947 Birthplace: Oklahoma City, OK Number Retired: Aug. 11, 1984

Cincinnati's uniform No. 5 belongs to perhaps the greatest catcher to ever play in the Major Leagues. The standard by which all other catchers are measured, Johnny Bench ended his 17-year storied career in 1983 after earning two MVP Awards, 10 Gold Gloves and 14 trips to the All-Star Game. Bench was inducted into the National Baseball Hall of Fame in 1989.

Bench began his career with a bang, earning Rookie-of-the-Year honors in 1968. Able to control a game on both sides of the plate, he ended his career with a .267 average and 389 homers (327 as a catcher, which at the time stood as a record for NL catchers).

On the Reds' all-time batting list, Bench ranks first in homers and RBI (1,376), second in extra-base hits (794) and total bases (3,644), third in runs (1,091) and fourth in hits (2,048) and doubles (381).

Johnny appeared in 22 National League Championship Series games and 23 World Series games. Bench earned World Series MVP honors in 1976 when the Reds swept the NY Yankees, four games to none. He twice led the league in home runs (1970 with 45, and 1972 with 40), and three times in RBI (1970 with 148, 1972 with 125, and 1974 with 129).

8 Joe Morgan

Born: Sept. 19, 1943 Birthplace: Bonham, TX Number Retired: June 6, 1998

Joe Morgan, a 10-time All-Star and five-time Gold Glove second baseman, was elected to the Reds Hall of Fame in 1987 and the Baseball Hall of Fame in 1990. A two-time MVP Award winner, Morgan spent eight seasons with the Reds from 1972-79 during the glory days of the Big Red Machine.

He was named the NL's Most Valuable Player in 1975, when he guided the Reds to a World Series victory over the Boston Red Sox. Morgan batted .327 with 67 stolen bases that season. He turned the trick again in 1976, when he received NL MVP honors as the Reds roared to their second straight World Series Championship with a four-game sweep of the New York Yankees. Morgan batted .320 in 1975, with 60 stolen bases.

Morgan is the Reds all-time stolen base leader (406), and his 266 home runs as a second baseman rank third in baseball history. He finished his 22-year professional career with 268 homers, 1,133 RBI and 689 stolen bases for the Astros, Reds, Giants, Phillies and Athletics.

Morgan's uniform No. 8 was officially retired in a pregame ceremony June 6, 1998.

10 Sparky Anderson

Born: Feb. 22, 1934 Birthplace: Bridgewater, SD Number Retired: May 28, 2005

Sparky Anderson was inducted into the Reds Hall of Fame on June 3, 2000. Later that summer, he was inducted into the National Baseball Hall of Fame in Cooperstown.

Anderson was named National League Manager of the Year in 1972 and '75 by The Associated Press and American League Manager of the Year in 1984 and '87 by the Baseball Writers' Association of America. He is the only manager to win a World Series in both leagues.

Anderson went 2,194-1,834 (.545) in 26 Major League seasons with the Reds and Tigers. From 1970-78 he led the legendary Big Red Machine to an 863-586 record (.596), 5 National League West Division titles, 5 pennants and 2 World Series. His '75 and '76 teams combined to go 210-114 (.629) and became the first NL franchise in 54 years to win consecutive world championships. He is the Reds' all-time leader in victories (863) and winning percentage (.596).

Anderson's 2,194 career victories during his 26 Major League seasons is the third-highest total in history behind Connie Mack (3,731) and John McGraw (2,763). He joins Mack, McGraw and Bucky Harris as the game's only managers to participate in 4,000 games, and Tony LaRussa will join that group in May 2005.

18 Ted Kluszewski

Born: Sept. 10, 1924 Birthplace: Argo, IL Died: March 29, 1988 Number Retired: July 18, 1998

Ted Kluszewski, a four-time All-Star, was elected to the Reds' Hall of Fame in 1962. Following an 11-year career with the Reds, he was noted as the greatest left-handed slugger and one of the best fielding first basemen in club history.

From 1947 to 1957, Big Klu hit 251 homers for the Reds, including 49 in 1954 to lead the National League. His 141 RBI that season also led the league, and both tallies are club records for left-handers.

Kluszewski also led the National League for five straight seasons in fielding from 1951-55.

He finished his 15-year, big-league career with a .298 batting average, 279 homers and 1,028 RBI, playing for the Reds, Pirates, White Sox and Angels.

Kluszewski, who also served the Reds as a coach from 1970-78, had his uniform No. 18 officially retired on July 18, 1998.

20 Frank Robinson

Robinson began his professional career in Cincinnati, and would spend 10 of his first 21 professional seasons in a Reds uniform. While playing for the Reds from 1956 to 1965, Robinson belted 30 or more homers in seven of his 10 seasons, including a rookie record of 38 while winning the National League's Rookie of the Year Award in 1956.

In 1961 Robinson was named the National League's Most Valuable Player after hitting .323 with 37 homers and 124 RBI, while helping guide the Reds to their first World Series appearance in 21 years.

Years In Front Office

1967-78, 1983-85

The Cincinnati Reds Hall of Fame and Museum opened to the public Sept. 25, 2004, just west of Great American Ball Park along Cincinnati's riverfront. The facility features more than 16,000 square feet of exhibit space on two floors honoring the history of baseball's first professional team.

With artifacts and memorabilia dating all the way back to the legendary 1869 Cincinnati Red Stockings, the Hall of Fame and Museum provides a complete account of Reds history.

In addition to the artifacts on display, the Hall of Fame and Museum features a number of interactive exhibits (from throwing off a regulation mound to making a call in the radio booth), which give fans an inside look at America's Pastime. Exhibits such as the Kids Clubhouse welcome Reds fans of all ages.

Memberships to the Hall of Fame and Museum include a variety of benefits, such as invitations to special events in the Hall and ticket vouchers to Reds home games. Membership prices, museum hours, ticket prices and other information can be found at the Reds Official website or by calling (513) 765-7576. For media members seeking more information, contact Lisa Braun at (513) 765-7925.

Reds Ballparks Through The Years

Union Grounds (1869-70)

Union Grounds served as the first home of baseball's original professional team. The park was located near the area now occupied by the Museum Center in the Union Terminal train station. Anchored by a grandstand called "Grand Duchess," the park could seat up to 4,000 fans.

Avenue Grounds (1876-79)

The Reds headed two miles north from Union Grounds to erect Avenue Grounds, which featured a grandstand that could seat up to 3,000 fans. The ballpark was approximately four miles from the heart of the city's population, so horse-drawn streetcars and trains were a popular way to travel to the park.

Bank Street Grounds (1880-83)

The Reds moved closer to the city with the opening of Bank Street Grounds prior to the 1880 season. The ballpark was located on the north side of Bank Street, south of Western Avenue and just west of McLean Avenue, and could seat up to 4,000 fans. Innovative scoreboard features included players' names and out-of-town scores.

League Park (1884-1901)

Originally called American Park (in reference to Cincinnati's membership in the American Association), the park was renamed League Park (in reference to the National League) in 1890. The park featured a covered grandstand with leather-cushioned seats and open seats along the first- and third-base sides.

Palace of the Fans (1902-11)

Following a major fire, the Reds rebuilt the main grandstand of League Park in 1902. Today, baseball historians refer to the updated facility as Palace of the Fans. The park featured an illustrious grandstand with pillars and columns carved by hand, as well as 19 fashion boxes (much like opera boxes) and inexpensive field-level seating.

Crosley Field (1912-70)

Originally named Redland Field and renamed in 1934, Crosley Field was the first Reds ballpark to feature a double-decked grandstand. The facility, located at the corner of Western Avenue and Findlay Street, was the site of baseball's first night game and hosted Cincinnati's first World Series Championship team.

Riverfront Stadium (1970-2002)

The Cincinnati Reds shared Riverfront Stadium with the NFL's Cincinnati Bengals until 1999. The multipurpose stadium, which could seat approximately 56,000 fans, was considered state-of-the-art upon its opening in June 1970. The facility hosted five pennant winners and three World Series Championship teams.

Great American Ball Park (2003-present)

The Reds' new home kicked off the 2003 season with one of the most anticipated debuts in team history. The ballpark, with room for more than 42,000 fans, includes a variety of seating and dining options, a state-of-the-art sound and scoreboard system and an array of historical elements.

September 16, 1988:
One Perfect Night

On September 16, 1988, lefthander Tom Browning tossed the only perfect game in Cincinnati Reds history when he retired all 27 batters faced in a 1-0 victory over the Los Angeles Dodgers.

It was only the 14th perfect game (9.0 innings or more) in Major League history, just the third in modern National League history and the first no-hitter by a Reds pitcher since Tom Seaver blanked the Cardinals, 4-0, on June 16, 1978.

Browning's perfect game capped off an incredible season in which he posted an 18-5 record, including a 16-2 mark after June 6.

commissioner of baseball, former Federal Judge Kenesaw Mountain Landis, who was hired to clean up America's growing favorite pastime.

The supposed involvement of certain players was something of a mystery in its own right. Weaver, who had known about the conspiracy from the beginning, refused to take part and batted .324 in the Series. He was banned for not exposing his teammates.

Jackson, who admitted taking $5,000, batted .375 with a homer and six RBI.

But, there were those who were as guilty as sin.

Risberg committed four errors and batted .080, but did not receive a cent. Gandil - the organizer of the scam - on the other hand, walked away with $30,000 and immediately announced his retirement. Cicotte lost two of his three starts and earned a $10,000 payday. He later told the jury it was not worth the effort.

Major League Baseball Rules of Interest

Calculating the "Magic Number": Determine the number of games to be played by the team in the lead. Add one to that number. Subtract from that figure the number of games ahead in the loss column from the closest opponent.

Determining Earned Run Average: Multiply earned runs by nine, then divide total by innings pitched.

Determining Batting Average: Divide total hits by total at-bats.

Determine Slugging Percentage: Divide the total bases of all safe hits by the total number of at-bats.

Determining On-Base Percentage: Divide hits + walks + hit-by-pitch, by at-bats + walks + hit-by-pitch + sac flies.

Determining Fielding Percentage: Divide the total putouts and assists by the total of putouts, assists and errors.

The Winning Pitcher: The starting pitcher will be credited with the win only if the pitcher has pitched at least five complete innings and his team not only is in the lead when he is replaced, but remains in the lead the remainder of the game.

EXCEPTION: The "must-pitch-five-complete-innings" rule in respect to the starting pitcher shall be in effect for all games of six or more innings. In a five-inning game, credit the starting pitcher with a game won only if he has pitched at least four complete innings and his team not only is in the lead when he is replaced, but remains in the lead the remainder of the game. When the starting pitcher does not meet the preceding criteria and more than one relief pitcher is used, the victory shall be awarded on the following basis:

- (1) When, during the tenure of the starting pitcher, the winning team assumes the lead and maintains it to the finish of the game, credit the victory to the relief pitcher judged by the official scorer to have been the most effective.
- (2) Whenever the score is tied, the game becomes a new contest insofar as the winning and losing pitcher is concerned.
- (3) Once the opposing team assumes the lead, all pitchers who have pitched up to that point are excluded from being credited with the victory except the current pitcher.
- (4) The winning relief pitcher shall be the one who is the pitcher of record when his team assumes the lead and maintains it to the finish of the game. EXCEPTION: Do not credit a victory to a relief pitcher who is ineffective in a brief appearance, when a succeeding relief pitcher pitches effectively in helping his team maintain the lead. In such cases, credit the succeeding relief pitcher with the victory.

Earning a Save: Credit a pitcher with a save when he meets all of the following conditions:

- (1) He is the pitcher that finished the game won by his team.
- (2) He is not the winning pitcher.
- (3) He qualifies under one of the following conditions:
 - a. He enters the game with a lead of no more than three runs and pitches for at least one inning, or
 - b. He enters the game, regardless of the count, with the potential tying run either on base, at bat, or on deck (that is, the potential tying run either already on base or is one of the first two batters he faces), or
 - c. He pitches effectively for at least three innings.

Consecutive Game Hitting Streak: A consecutive game hitting streak shall not be terminated if the player's plate appearance(s) results in a base on balls, hit batter, defensive interference or sac bunt. The streak shall terminate if the player has a sac fly and no hit. Consecutive game hitting streaks do not carry over from season to season.

Consecutive Game Playing Streak: A consecutive game playing streak shall be extended if the player plays one-half inning on defense or if he completes a time at bat by reaching base or being put out. A pinch-running appearance shall not extend the streak. If a player is ejected from the game by an umpire before he can comply with the requirement of this rule, the streak shall continue.

Suspended Games: All performance in the completion of a suspended game shall be considered as occurring on the original date of the game.

Rain Delays: Pursuant to Rule 3.10(a), the manager of the home team shall be the sole judge as to whether a game shall be started because of unsuitable weather conditions or the unfit condition of the playing field, except for the second game of a doubleheader. Pursuant to Rule 3.10(c), the umpire in chief shall be the sole judge as to whether and when a game shall be suspended and as to whether and when play will be resumed. An umpire shall not call a game until at least 30 minutes after he has suspended play. He may continue the suspension as long as he believes there is any chance to resume play.

National League Curfew: There is no curfew in the National League. The game is in the hands of the umpires once it has started.

Major League Year: 172 days of service time constitutes a full year in the Major Leagues.

Rookie Status at the Major League Level: To be considered a rookie, a player must not have more than 130 at-bats, or 50 innings-pitched in the Major Leagues during a previous season or seasons, nor more than 45 days on a Major League roster during the Major League 25-player limit (excluding time in the military).

Waiver Regulations: From 30 days after the start of the season, players are available for claiming off waivers in reverse order of standings, at the time waivers expire. Otherwise, players are available for claiming off waivers in reverse order of standings at the close of the preceding season. With respect to trades, no waivers are necessary from 5 p.m. (ET) the day after the scheduled end of the regular season through July 31. Waivers are necessary from August 1 through the day after the scheduled end of the regular season.

OTHER INFO

A sellout crowd of 42,122 was on hand for Opening Day 2004, which included a ceremonial first pitch by Vice President Dick Cheney. Attendance at Great American Ball Park topped 2.2 million last season, when the Reds put the finishing touches on their new home with the additions of the Fan Zone plaza, the Reds Team Shop by Majestic and the Reds Hall of Fame and Museum.

Name and Logos

Cincinnati Nicknames Over the Years

The Cincinnati franchise began play in 1869 as the Red Stockings due, not surprisingly, to the color of their game hosiery. The club has undergone a few name changes over the years, first shortening the name to Reds, then briefly during the 1950s, being known as the Redlegs.

Opinions vary as to exactly when "Red Stockings" became shortened to just "Reds," but team histories refer to the club as Reds when the National League was founded in 1876, and by 1882 the more formal Red Stockings name was no longer in favor. In fact, instead of "Red Stockings," fans of that era might have been more likely to refer to the Cincinnati team as the "Porkopolitans," a reference to the city's (and the club hierarchy's) interest in the meat-packing industry.

During the 1950s, the era of Joseph McCarthy and the Red scare, the term "Red" was seen in a very different light. Thus during the seasons of 1953-58, the Cincinnati ballclub was called the Redlegs, so as not to give any appearance of an affiliation with Communism.

GREAT AMERICAN BALL PARKSM

On July 7, 2000 Great American Insurance Company, one of the oldest insurance companies in the United States, and the Cincinnati Reds, America's first professional baseball team, joined forces when the two organizations announced a 30-year agreement under which the new home of the Reds would be called Great American Ball Park. Great American, founded in 1872, is the lead member of the Great American Insurance Group and is a wholly-owned subsidiary of American Financial Group, Inc. (NYSE: AFG).

Reds in the Community

The Reds Community Fund (RCF) is the official nonprofit organization of the Cincinnati Reds. The RCF is dedicated to improving the lives of youth by leveraging the tradition of the Cincinnati Reds and the game of baseball. The fund strives to create programming that connects at-risk children with baseball, while creating fundraising programs that connect baseball with the community. For additional information, visit our Web site at www.redscommunityfund.com or call (513) 765-7231.

One of RCF's signature annual fundraisers is the Redlegs Run for Home. This family-oriented 5K run and walk takes place Sunday, June 5, 2005, beginning outside Great American Ball Park and concluding inside the ballpark near home plate. Kids ages 5-10 can participate in "Gapper's Kid's Fun Run" and everyone can enjoy a post-race party on the Fan Zone. Since the inaugural event in 2002, over 5,000 have participated, generating close to $100,000 in proceeds.

In June 2005, the Community Fund's jewel outreach program, the Reds Rookie Success League (RRSL), returns for its third season. The RRSL is a noncompetitive, coed, character building summer baseball league targeting at risk 8-11 year olds. Two six-week leagues will be hosted, teaching valuable life lessons to more than 500 children while utilizing the game of baseball as the delivery vehicle. Big Red Machine outfielder George Foster continues to serve as Commissioner, with assistance from close to 100 volunteers and mentors, as well as Reds stars such as Danny Graves, Ken Griffey Jr., Sean Casey, Ryan Freel and others. League partners include the Cincinnati Recreation Commission and TriHealth. To learn how you can become involved, visit the Web site or call (513) 765-7231.

Since 1971, Major League Baseball has annually presented an award that recognizes a player who best exemplifies the game of baseball through sportsmanship, community involvement and positive contributions to his team.

In 1973, following the tragic death of Roberto Clemente, the award was named to honor the man whose spirit and goodwill will always be remembered. The 12-time All-Star and Hall of Famer was killed in a plane crash in 1972 delivering food and medical supplies to earthquake victims of Nicaragua. The award, sponsored by John Hancock Financial Services, recognizes those individuals who truly understand the value of helping others.

A panel of baseball dignitaries, including Vera Clemente and Commissioner Allan H. (Bud) Selig, annually selects the winner from a list of 30 candidates, one from each Major League Baseball Club. These local winners are announced in September during Roberto Clemente Day. The winner of the national Roberto Clemente Award is announced during a pre game ceremony at the World Series. Past winners include Edgar Martinez, Jamie Moyer, Jim Thome, Curt Schilling, Al Leiter, Tony Gwynn, Willie Mays, Ozzie Smith, and Cal Ripken, Jr.

John Hancock Financial Services, a company that has long recognized its obligation to the community, is a proud sponsor of Major League Baseball and the Roberto Clemente Award.

Historical Elements at Great American Ball Park

"Spirit of Baseball" Relief

Adorning the west end of the Reds administration building is the "Spirit of Baseball," a limestone relief that stands 50' tall and 20' wide. The relief depicts the romance of the game with the Cincinnati riverfront as a background and four characters in the forefront. Three of the characters – a catcher, a batter and a fielder – are in the clouds, and a child dressed in a uniform with a bat is on the ground. The actual look of the relief varies, as sunlight and artificial lighting allow shadows to alter the look of the sculpture throughout the day.

1869 Team Mosaic

As fans enter the main gates of Great American Ball Park, they're greeted by two team mosaics. One mosaic depicts the original nine of the Cincinnati Red Stockings, baseball's first team of professionals. The mosaic, which is comprised of Italian marble tiles, includes historic Cincinnati as a background and players in their traditional uniforms.

Big Red Machine Team Mosaic

A second mosaic depicts the 1975 World Champion Cincinnati Reds team. With downtown Cincinnati, Riverfront Stadium and the Roebling Bridge as a backdrop, the mosaic features the "Great Eight" of the Big Red Machine – Ken Griffey, Tony Perez, Johnny Bench, Joe Morgan, Pete Rose, Cesar Geronimo, Dave Concepcion and George Foster.

Famous-Dates Banners

A series of banners featuring memorable dates in Reds history align the ballpark along Second Street. Each banner features the name, date and description of each event, including Oct. 9, 1919 (the Reds first World Series Championship), Sept. 11, 1985 (Pete Rose's record-breaking hit) and Sept. 22, 1996 (Barry Larkin becoming baseball's first 30-30 shortstop). A banner honoring Ken Griffey Jr.'s 500th home run (June 20, 2004) will be unveiled in 2005. A separate set of banners, located in Crosley Terrace, depicts the memorable moments from the Crosley Field era (1934-'69).

Crosley-Era Banners

In addition to the banners lining Second Street, a second set of banners is located within Crosley Terrace and pays tribute to the memorable moments that took place in Crosley Field. Those six banners feature events such as baseball's first night game (May 24, 1935), Johnny Vander Meer's consecutive no-hitters (June 11 and 15, 1938) and the Reds World Series victory over the Tigers (Oct. 8, 1940).

Scoreboard Mural

The back of Great American Ball Park's scoreboard, which is viewable from the U.S. Bank Arena plaza level and other parts of eastern downtown, contains a massive photograph of a weathered bat and ball. The equipment has a historic value, though. It was used by Hit King Pete Rose to club hit No. 4,192, which broke Ty Cobb's longstanding record in 1985.

Retired Numbers

On the façade located under the press box in Great American Ball Park are all the retired Reds uniform numbers. The six Reds who have had their numbers retired are #1 Fred Hutchinson, #5 Johnny Bench, #8 Joe Morgan, #18 Ted Kluszewski, #20 Frank Robinson and #24 Tony Perez. Sparky Anderson's #10 will be the seventh when it is retired in May 2005.

Crosley-Era Clock

The Longines clock at Crosley Field was a unique feature in the Reds former ballpark. That historic element has been brought back to life, thanks to a replica of the clock that adorns the main scoreboard in Great American Ball Park. The current clock is significantly larger than its predecessor.

Concourse Quote Band

Stretching the circumference of the ballpark's concourse is a band of quotes that the team feels best represents the spirit of baseball in Cincinnati. An example is Pete Rose's famous line, "I'd walk through hell in a gasoline suit to play baseball." The quote band is located on the suite level and begins on the ballpark's third-base side.

Scout's Alley

A special concession and lounge area entitled Scout's Alley is one of the most unique sections of Great American Ball Park. The approximately 1,000 fans located in the Scout and lower-Club seating sections during game days can access this private area, which has a "baseball scout" motif. Historic photographs, as well as displays of the "five tools" of prospects, tastefully give this area its charm. Guests can also see an example of a Major League scouting map, pictures of former Reds scouts, actual contracts and scouting reports, and a mock desktop of a Reds scout.

Mock Infield

Nearly two-thirds of fans entering Great American Ball Park will stroll through the 50,000-square-foot Crosley Terrace, one of the highlights of the Reds new-ballpark project and a tribute to Crosley Field, which was the Reds home from 1934-'69. The terrace contains about an acre of concrete, which is landscaped with grass and trees that resemble a playing field. The "infield" contains a pitcher's mound built to Major League Baseball dimensions of the day, and grass in the terrace is sloped at the same incline as the infamous Crosley outfield.

Bronze Statues

The mock infield of Crosley Terrace is brought to life by the inclusion of four bronze statues honoring Reds greats from the Crosley era. The four were chosen in voting by fans, who were asked to select one catcher, one pitcher and two hitters. The Reds received more than 17,000 ballots cast through the Internet and at Cinergy Field. Ted Kluszewski (hitter), Ernie Lombardi (catcher), Joe Nuxhall (pitcher) and Frank Robinson (hitter) received the most votes. The statues, which were sculpted by local artist Thomas Tsuchiya, were phased into the terrace one at a time throughout the season. Kluszewski was unveiled on Opening Day 2003 and was followed by Nuxhall (July 2003), Robinson (September 2003) and Lombardi (June 2004).

Dining Options at Great American Ball Park

The Machine Room Grille

Great American Ball Park's brewpub, located in the left-field corner, is a dedication to the Big Red Machine, the Reds teams that dominated baseball in the 1970s. This spacious bar and grille has a blue-collar feel, much like the Reds team of the era. Brick and steel finishes, with an exposed ceiling, set the tone. Additional features of the brewpub include a mini electronic scoreboard, views of the playing field, mock foul poles, outside seats, the zamboni used at Cinergy Field and plenty of Reds memorabilia. Dishes include everything from burgers to pizza to barbeque.

FSN Ohio Club 4192

The lounge, a dedication to Pete Rose's record-breaking hit, is open to all premium-seating customers, including Suite, Scout and Club. These guests can access this exclusive area before, during and after games. In addition to a large sit-down bar, FSN Ohio Club 4192 offers a variety of food and beverage options at chef-style food stations. The lounge boasts over 13,000 square feet of space, and fans can relax in traditional dining seats, bar stools at a centrally located four-sided bar or at drink rails facing the ballpark. Comfortable lounge areas also provide cushioned seating overlooking the ballpark.

The Riverfront Club

Located in the right-field section of the ballpark and overlooking the Ohio River is the Riverfront Club, which offers world-class cuisine from an award-winning chef. Access to this upscale restaurant and bar requires a membership. Premium seat holders enjoy a complimentary membership. Members can enjoy a meal before the game or enjoy full service while watching the game from the Riverfront Club's three terraces or on the televisions located throughout the restaurant. For membership inquiries, call (513) 765-7076.

The Diamond Club

For guests who have purchased Diamond Seats, the exclusive Diamond Lounge, which is located directly behind home plate under the field-level seating, is one of the main perks. This exclusive area features beverage service and a gourmet buffet, as well as a window that looks directly into the tunnel that leads from the Reds clubhouse to the dugout. Guests also receive free, in-seat food and beverage service when leaving the lounge for their seats.

Premium Seating

Diamond Seats

The most exclusive of the premium-seating options at Great American Ball Park are the Diamond Seats, which are located in the first eight rows directly behind home plate. The seats, which cost $200 per game, are wider than other seats in the ballpark (approximately 2 inches), are padded and fully upholstered. Perks for Diamond-Seat holders include access to the private Diamond Lounge, as well as in-seat food and beverage service. The price tag for Diamond Seats is all-inclusive, meaning that all food and beverages are included in the ticket price. Group rates are also available.

Scout Seats

The Scout Seats, priced at $70 per seat, are located directly behind home plate and start with the ninth row. The section earned its name because these are the seats that Major League scouts occupy to evaluate talent. These padded seats, which are about 2 inches wider than other seats in the ballpark, include a host of amenities, including in-seat food and beverage service, access to private concession and restroom areas, as well as access to the exclusive FSN Ohio Club 4192. *Scout seats are sold out for 2005.

Club Seats

Directly above the field-level seats, Club Seats offer great views of the field and of the Ohio River, in-seat specialty food and beverage service, and exclusive access to FSN Ohio Club 4192. Perks that come with these seats, which range from $49-60, include in-seat food and beverage service, so that fans won't miss any of the action.

Party Areas/Group Tickets

Batter's Eye Pavilion

The Batter's Eye Pavilion in center field is an architectural highlight of Great American Ball Park. This party area is glass-enclosed and climate-controlled, and features a non-reflective glass shield that doubles as the batter's eye. Amenities of the pavilion include air-conditioning, TV monitors and private restrooms. The area can accommodate 100-170 fans at a price of $73 per person, which includes a game ticket, catered buffet and beverages.

Triple Play Party Suites

A trio of climate-controlled suites available to the public at Great American Ball Park has been dubbed the Triple Play Party Suites. Larger groups may combine two or all three of the Triple Play Party Suites. Suite #13 (a dedication to Dave Concepcion) can accommodate up to 35 people (30-person minimum) and offers 29 outdoor stadium-style seats, plus 10 indoor seats with partial views of the field. Suites #8 (Joe Morgan) and #24 (Tony Perez) can accommodate up to 32 people (24-person minimum) each and are equipped with 24 outdoor stadium-style seats and eight indoor seats. The cost per person for the suites is $73, which includes a game ticket, catered buffet and beverages.

Party Decks A & B

Groups can enjoy the game from a covered deck, which offers great views of right field, or they can take a seat in the Party Deck's padded ballpark seating for up-close views of the game. The deck area and the adjacent 102 seats accommodate parties of up to 120, or the Party Deck can be divided for two smaller groups of 50-60. The price is $63 per person, and the package includes a game ticket, catered buffet and beverages.

RedLegs Landing

RedLegs Landing is ideal for mingling before the game on this open-air patio party area. Guests can take in the spectacular sightlines of the field, the out-of-town scores, and the state-of-the-art digital video scoreboard from this section of private ballpark seating. RedLegs Landing accommodates 51-60 people and costs $43 per person, which includes a game ticket, catered buffet and beverages.

The Ol' Lefthander

Following the 2004 season, Joe Nuxhall retired after 60 years in the organization, including 38 years in the broadcast booth. He has a personal services contract with the team and is expected to broadcast selected games in 2005. Nuxhall began his broadcasting career with the Reds in 1967 and for 31 seasons from 1974-2004 teamed with Hall of Famer Marty Brennaman on the Reds Radio Network. In December 2003, Nuxhall was nominated for the Ford C. Frick award, given annually by the National Baseball Hall of Fame to a broadcaster "for major contributions to the game of baseball." The Reds Hall of Fame lefthander pitched in the Major Leagues for 16 years (1944, 1952-'66), including all or parts of 15 seasons with the Reds, and went 135-117, 3.90 in 526 apps and 287 starts for Cincinnati, Kansas City and Los Angeles. As a 15-year-old on June 10, 1944 vs STL, he became the youngest player ever to appear in a Major League game, a record that never will be broken. Nuxhall has played or broadcast games in 56 ballparks, including each of the existing ballparks except for RFK Stadium, Fenway Park, Skydome, SAFECO Field and Camden Yards.
